

The challenge: To create an innovative tram wrap that will engage the people of the city of Nottingham and some of the city's key stakeholders

The activities: Outdoor advertising, integrated marketing, photography and illustration

The results: The artwork was requested for the Mayor's office and the feedback has been very positive, resulting in new projects for us

